

I. AYOP LAND MANAGEMENT WORKSHOP, 26-27 May, 2011
THEME: SUSTAINABLE LAND MANAGEMENT IN TURKEY

The main purpose of the workshop; is to provide sustainable land management for our country; the technical, legal, economic and social dimensions of land management by introducing a model production process is to start. For this purpose; scientists in our country related to land management, politicians, public / local administrations with representatives of the self-employed will be tried to be brought together to contribute to the formation of an appropriate land management model for Turkey.

Scope of the workshop: The workshop was planned as two days. Presentations will be presented to reflect the researches on land management issues within the scope of the activity. There will be speakers invited in the sessions. There will also be a panel discussion on Land Management issues and new trends in land management. The main topics to be covered within the scope of the workshop are as follows.

Subjects to discuss

- Principles of Land Management
- Land Legislation / Policy in Turkey
- Cadastre
- Regional Land Arrangement
- Central Land Arrangement
- Zoning Applications
- Urban Regeneration Applications
- Management of Water / Basin Areas
- Marine Cadastre
- Property Valuation / Taxation
- Forest Management and Application
- Using Information Technologies in Land Management
- Land / Urban Information Systems
- Administrative / Legal Structure in Land Management
- Land Readjustment
- Land Consolidation
- Land Management in Energy and Mining Management