

II. AYOP LAND MANAGEMENT WORKSHOP, 21-22 May, 2012
THEME: LAND VALUATION IN TURKEY

The main purpose of the workshop is to evaluate the real estate appraisal in Turkey; technical, legal, economic and social dimensions and the development of a detailed process is to be discussed. For this purpose; In our country, scientists, politicians, representatives of public / local administrations and freelancers related to real estate valuation in the country will be brought together and the subject will be handled and contribution will be made with suggestions and discourses.

Subjects to discuss

- Real Estate Valuation
- Real estate legislation / policies
- Real estate development
- Standards in real estate valuation
- International approaches in real estate valuation
- Value map production / taxation
- Building a land property market
- Real estate appraisal in zoning applications
- Real Estate Valuation Land Registry-Cadastre Relations
- Real estate valuation in planning
- Equivalence in urban land arrangement
- Urban Regeneration Applications
- Valuation in rural area regulations
- Use of information technologies in valuation
- Administrative / legal structure in real estate valuation
- Real estate valuation of property acquisition