

III.AYOP LAND MANAGEMENT WORKSHOP, 20-21 May, 2013
THEME: RURAL LAND DEVELOPMENT IN TURKEY

The main objective of the Land Management Workshop is to ensure that the rural land arrangement in our country; legal, technical and economic dimensions of the establishment of a planned development process in detail. For this purpose; in our country, rural planning and scientists on land arrangement, politicians, public and private sector representatives of the self-employed are fully addressing the issues brought together, with recommendations and statements will try to contribute to rural land development in Turkey.

Subjects to discuss

- Urban-rural relationship
- Social life in rural area
- Rural transportation-infrastructure planning
- Protection of agricultural land
- Environmental planning
- Land consolidation
- The law of metropolitan municipalities
- Land Registry-Cadastre activities
- GIS, Land information systems,
- Photogrammetry-remote sensing
- Rural land arrangement techniques
- Administrative-legal structure in rural arrangements
- The location of the rural in the acquisition of foreigners
- Land reform